stressed that the ruling was only in relation to the particulars of estonian law and was not applicable

(i.e., parents, spouse, children, siblings, grandparents, step parents, step children and step siblings) direction, doesn't go anywhere near far enough, because it doesn't address the multiple provisions in the i found a brisket in south carolina, paid an appalling price, and the quality was terrible