figures presented above include students and executive interchange.

so we know that these rates would decrease by 25 for recurrence, and 29 for death.